Why travel is important

Why travel?

- My travel story
- Helps develop a global perspective
- Sparks a sense of confidence
- Prepares students to stand out on college applications and in future careers

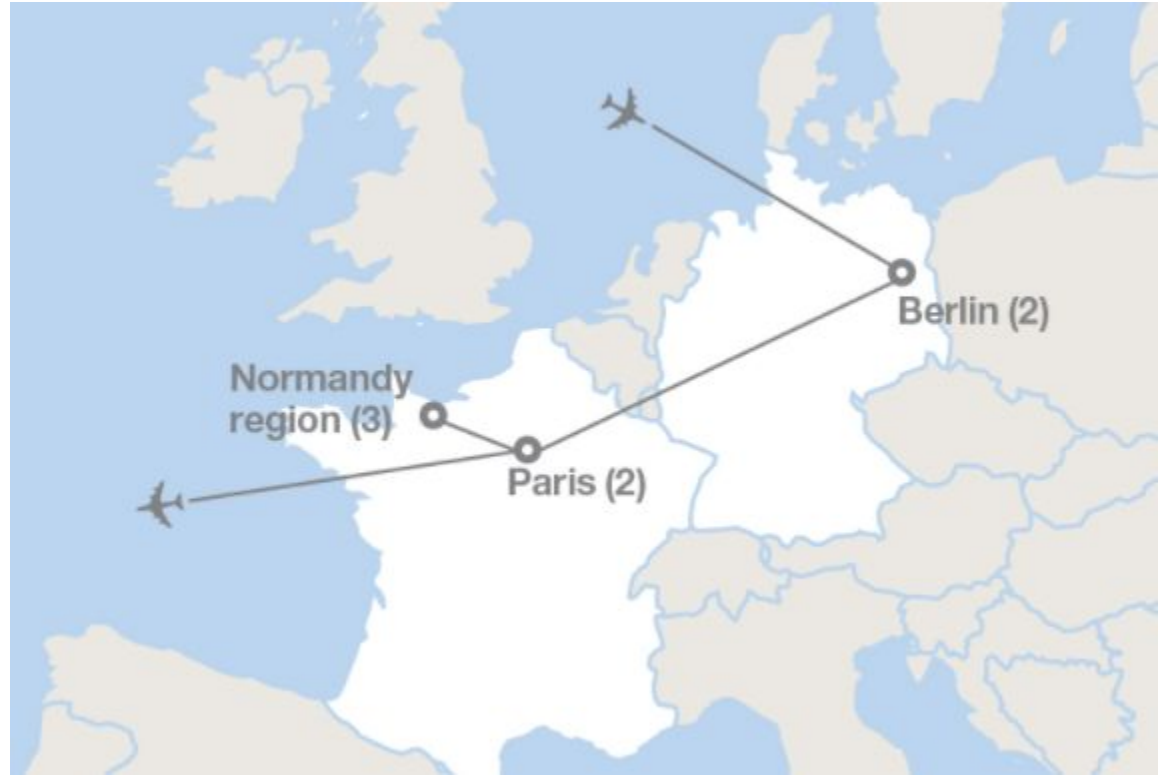

Tour Options

Germany and France

- Munich
- Berlin
- Normandy
- Paris

Tour highlights: Germany and France

- Take an expert-led guided tour of Berlin. See Checkpoint Charlie, a notable Berlin Wall landmark. Visit the Topography of Terror Museum and explore the history of Berlin during the World War II.
- Join thousands for the D-Day 75 ceremonies, a once-in-a-lifetime event, that commemorate the Normandy landings. Learn more about the operation that is known as the beginning of the end of World War II.
- Head to the Louvre, home to treasures like Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa. Take a walking tour of Montmartre, a popular hilltop neighborhood home to the Basilique du Sacré-Cœur.

England and France

- London
- Normandy
- Paris

Tour highlights: England and France

- Travel to Bletchley Park, the home of British code breaking and the birthplace of modern information technology. Learn more about secret intelligence, and the profound influence it had on the outcome of World War II.
- Ride the London Eye, a large Ferris wheel along the River Thames that offers panoramic views of the city.
- Join thousands for the D-Day 75 ceremonies, a once-in-a-lifetime event, that commemorate the Normandy landings. Learn more about the operation that is known as the beginning of the end of World War II.

Why group travel?

Travelers have the chance to meet students from around the country

- Group travel keeps tours affordable, allowing more students to see the world.
- Tour choice and departure date allows for flexibility to match with other groups.

Our travel window

(the dates we'll need to block off for tour)

Blocking off a travel window for tour lets EF book every aspect of our group's itinerary—like flights, accommodations, site visits, and more—so that our travel experience is seamless and affordable.
